

Photos and articles courtesy of:

Darrin Phegley / The Gleaner

People head through the buffet-style line at Zion United Church of Christ's Thanksgiving dinner meal at the church Thursday, November 22, 2012. The national UCC church began a initiative called Faith In where participating UCC churches share their faith and help their community. This is Zion UCC's first Faith In project. Their next project will be their long-standing Charity Luncheon and Bake Sale on December 7th.

Darrin Phegley / The Gleaner

Zion UCC pastor Deborah McBride, center-left, leads in prayer as members of the church open the buffet-style Thanksgiving dinner to anyone who wants to come to their free dinner at the church Thursday, November 22, 2012.