

FREEDOM FROM FEAR

22ND ANNUAL PEACE WITH JUSTICE WEEKEND

October 18-20, 2013

Zion United Church of Christ
437 First St. Henderson, KY

Featuring:

- Keynote Speaker Rev. Mari Castellanos

Policy Advocate for Domestic Issues with the United Church of Christ's Justice and Witness Ministries in Washington, D.C.

- Workshop Leaders Fran and Ann Frellick

Peace and Justice activists from Fort Wayne, IN, lead discussions about gun violence and dealing with encountered fears, stemming from 15 years of "Heal the Land" prayer services following each homicide in Fort Wayne.

- Susan Fowler, Evansville artist and environmentalist used her art, music, sign language and storytelling to illustrate peace and justice issues in her all-ages workshops.
- Our opening night coffeehouse introducing the weekend's leaders and featuring music and readings, fair trade coffee, and finger food.

Andy and Sue Blyth from Berea, KY

Rev. Deborah and Michael St. Clair

- Our annual PWJW shop featuring fair trade coffee, chocolate, and crafts.

Our members listened and participated during the many presentations.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19th

9 a.m.—Zion Peace Pole rededication ceremony, church lawn.

Zion UCC members and guests enjoyed a wonderful weekend of music, spiritual renewal and civil enlightenment. We look forward to PWJW 2014!